

Growing In The Light

Just For Today

I will look forward eagerly to the great things my Higher Power is willing to share with me - a child's lighted smile, a morning sunrise, a random flower bed, a brilliant flash of the sun's reflection. There is so much more than I realized in my day to enjoy and be grateful for. I will practice feeling good and experience success. I can always choose to go back to the pain. It is my choice either way.
